NC Council for Women & Youth Involvement (NCCFW/YI)

N.C Council for Women & Youth Involvement's Mission

The NC Council for Women & Youth Involvement's (NCCFW/YI) mission is to advise the Governor, the North Carolina legislature & state agencies on the issues impacting women & youth in North Carolina by:

- Raising awareness of the impact of violence against women & directing available resources to serve victims across the state.
- Acting as a resource for local & regional councils/commissions for women.
- Assuring that necessary services, policies & programs are provided to citizens in need & strengthening existing programs.
- Reviewing applications, awarding grants & monitoring programs providing self-sufficiency development for women & families in transition.
- Enhancing the quality of the lives of children & youth through leadership development & experiential education.

2016 Accomplishments

NC Council for Women merges with Youth Advocacy

- In July 2016, the North Carolina General Assembly moved Youth Advocacy & Involvement to the NC Council for Women. Our new name is NC Council for Women & Youth Involvement. Three new programs joined our team: Students Against Destructive Decisions (SADD), the North Carolina Internship Program & State Youth Councils (SYC).

- "Go Red" is a national movement to bring awareness to heart disease, which is the leading cause of death for women in the United States.
- NCCFW/YI created a "Go Red" video with other Department of Administration divisions to raise awareness about heart disease through social media during the first week of February.

NC Council for Women & Youth Involvement (NCCFW/YI)

College Speaker Education Series Launched

- In January 2016, a college speaker series was launched to connect students with community leaders & to provide messages aimed to enlighten, embolden, & engage young college women in North Carolina.
- The series covered a range of topics impacting women's success today including women in politics, women in business & women in leadership.
- Participating universities & colleges included NC Central University, UNC Pembroke, William Peace University & Meredith College.

Domestic Violence Commission Launches Award To Highlight Education & Innovation

Purple Ribbon of Excellence Award Recipients

- The Domestic Violence Commission launched the Purple Ribbon of Excellence Award. This inaugural award program recognized outstanding domestic violence and/or sexual violence education, outreach & prevention programs.
- The 2016 Purple Ribbon of Excellence Award Recipients were: REACH of Macon County, Domestic Violence Shelter & Services, Inc. in Wilmington & Orange County Rape Crisis Center.

NCCFW/YI Continues to Strengthen its Internship & Volunteer Program

- NCCFW/YI Internship Program has created mentorship opportunities for students to learn the importance of public service & issues that affect women & youth in North Carolina.
- Interns came from universities & colleges across the state, including: Johnston C. Smith University, Lenoir-Rhyne University, North Carolina State University, UNC Charlotte, UNC Chapel Hill, Vernon Malone College & Career Academy, Wake Technical Community College & William Peace University.

NC Students Against Destructive Decisions (SADD)

SADD empowers young people to successfully confront the risks & pressures that challenge them throughout their daily lives. We accomplish this by creating, equipping & sustaining a network of student-run chapters in schools & communities focused on peer-to-peer education. SADD fosters a sense of belonging & promotes resiliency, leadership & advocacy skills, so that young people make positive decisions that will carry them throughout life.

2016 NC SADD Leadership Conference

Highlights:

- Started 8 new SADD Chapters across the state.
- Held the NC SADD Leadership Conference in Research Triangle Park from November 18-20. There were 232 participants. The conference included workshops on teen coaching, pregnancy prevention, safe dating/intimate partner violence prevention, alcohol & drug prevention, highway safety & social media.

SADD has over 200 chapters located in the following counties:

State Youth Council

State Youth Councils are community-based groups that provide an opportunity for youth to share in local government matters & to learn to become responsible citizens. Members of Youth Councils learn the value of team-work, respect for self & others, a strong work ethic & what it means to be a responsible citizen.

Youth Councils provide a creative outlet for the youth of the community. The focus is to allow collaboration & serve as one united voice for all local youth. Each local youth council is unique & provides opportunities to get involved in communities, build leadership skills & have fun. Currently, there are more than 20 chapters across the state performing more than 5,000 hours of community service per year.

The Mini-Grant Program in State Youth Councils provides youth organizations grants to enhance youth programs. Oversight is provided by the Youth Advisory Council.
